

RS Spyder: Triple Triumph

A sensational triple win by the Porsche RS Spyder heralded a sea change in the American Le Mans Series and thus wrote a new chapter in motorsports history. On the street circuit in Long Beach, California, the sports prototypes from Weissach left their competitors in the dust—even over the more powerful and previously undefeated Audi R10. Timo Bernhard (left) and Romain Dumas were enthusiastically honored by the team. A week later, there were celebrations once again, when the duo followed up with another overall victory at a race in Houston.

Such tremendous racing success takes great teamwork, as highlighted in the following feature.

